

Request for clergy reference

Applications to St George's School for entry to Year 7 in September 2021

(Covid-19)

During these unprecedented times, Parish of Harpenden will do all it reasonably can to assist you with your clergy reference. Each year, the Parish receives more than 70 requests for clergy references. In order to assist the Parish with the administration of clergy references, we ask that you complete and submit this form together with your child's record of church attendance ('passport') to the parish office by email. Please note that the parish office remains closed to visitors at this time.

Application forms and clergy reference forms will be available from St George's School from 1 October 2020.

Please see <https://www.stgeorges.herts.sch.uk/page/?title=Day+Admissions&pid=31> for further information regarding your application (Day Admissions) and St George's requirements concerning church attendance during these unprecedented times.
