

Request for clergy reference (Church Form) for applications to St George's School for entry to Year 7 in September 2022

Parish of Harpenden will do all it reasonably can to assist you with your clergy reference (Church Form). Each year, the Parish receives more than 70 requests for clergy references. In order to assist the Parish with the administration of clergy references, we ask that you complete and submit this form together with your child's record of church attendance ('passport') to the parish office by email by Monday 4 October 2021. There is no need to send a copy of the Church Form to the parish office.

The school open evening is on 1 October 2021.

The school application form is available from the school website. If you have any queries concerning your application, please contact the school admissions team.
