GETTING MARRIED IN THE PARISH OF HARPENDEN*

You are welcome to be married in this parish, at one of our three churches if

- one of you lives in the parish.
- one of you is entered on the church's electoral roll.

You can also marry in this parish if you can claim what is known as a 'qualifying connection' to the parish. These are any one of the following:

- one of you was baptized or prepared for confirmation in the parish;
- one of you has ever lived in the parish for six months or more;
- one of you has at any time regularly attended public worship in the parish for six months or more;
- one of your parents has lived in the parish for six months or more in their child's lifetime;
- one of your parents has regularly attended public worship there for six months or more in your lifetime;
- one of your parents or grandparents were married in the parish.

In exceptional circumstances it is possible for couples for whom none of these above apply, to be married in one of the churches of the Parish of Harpenden, but this requires a Licence.(see below). If this applies to you, please contact the Parish Office or discuss it with one of the clergy before you book the church or reception venue.

Marriage Measure 2008 Qualifying Connection forms for you to fill in are included in the forms at the back of this guide.*

CHOICE OF CHURCH

The Parish of Harpenden has three churches: St Mary's (Kinsbourne Green), All Saints (Batford) and St Nicholas (Central Harpenden).

You may be married in whichever of the three churches in the parish you live near or have a connection with or feel closest to.

PLEASE NOTE: Most of the following pages in this Pack apply to all three churches. We have endeavoured to make it clear where some details refer to St Nicholas church only.

BOOKING YOUR WEDDING

You may book your wedding at any time.

- Your Wedding Booking Form can be found at the back of this guide.
- To make a booking for any of the three churches you should contact the Parish Office for an appointment with the Parish Administrator. Ideally both of you should attend this appointment. (In exceptional circumstances only a provisional booking may be made on your behalf by a parent or close relative).
- Please bring your passports to establish identity and for accuracy of records. This is now a legal requirement under the 2015 Immigration Act.
- Please bring your diaries. We may be able to give you the dates that your Marriage preparation will take place and your Banns/Notice of intention to marry will be called.
- A deposit will be taken.
- We will ask you to pay all wedding fees no later than one month before your wedding day.

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

(not required for a Marriage Blessing)

From medieval times it became law for two people to announce their intention of getting married on three successive weeks in a public place. This would give anyone the chance to 'ban' the wedding if they knew, for example, that they were close relations or if one of them was already married to someone else!

It is still law that banns must be read out or called in church (a public place!) if a church wedding is being planned. Your wedding cannot take place until notice of your intention has been given by calling your Banns. (There is an alternative, but this involves a common or special licence - see below).

- Banns must be called in the parishes where you each reside (and where you intend to be married if this is not where either of you reside). We ensure that they are called in the Parish of Harpenden. If one of you lives outside the Parish of Harpenden, it is up to you to arrange for Banns to be called in the Anglican Church of the other parish(es). Please book this early in your planning with the Parish Priest(s) in the other parishes.
- Afterwards, obtain a Certificate from the Parish Priests confirming the Banns have been called. Be aware you cannot be lawfully married unless these have been called in all relevant parishes. You need to bring this certificate to us, at least a week before the ceremony.

Yours Banns will be called two months before your wedding day.

- The law requires that your banns be called at the principle and most well-attended Sunday Service at St Nicholas, St Mary's Kinsbourne Green or All Saints Batford
- Therefore, at St Nicholas Church, Banns are called during the 9.30am Eucharist Service, at St Mary's Church at 9.30am and at All Saints Church at 10am, on three consecutive Sundays.
- If you are a regular attendee at a church service other than the principle service, your Banns may be called there also.

We will endeavour to give you the dates, if we can, when you book the wedding with our Parish Administrator. If not, give the Parish Office a call to find out the date.

You and your family are strongly encouraged to come and hear your banns being called. Although this is not a legal requirement, it gives you the chance to know that your local Church is supporting you at this important time in your life, and praying God's blessing on your forthcoming marriage.

COMMON LICENCE or MARRIAGE SCHEDULE

From July 1st 2021, only the following persons will be able to marry after Banns or under a common Licence:

- British citizens
- Irish citizens
- Person with either "settled" or "pre-settled" status under the EU settlement scheme.
- A common licence applies even if you have lived in the UK for several years.
- In the first instance ask to check with a member of the clergy if you qualify for such a licence.
- The Church of England has Registrars who may delegate to clergy experts (called Surrogates) the power to issue Common Licences for marriage where the presenting circumstances are straightforward. The clergy will advise you how to contact the nearest Surrogate to this parish.
- You will have to make an appointment to see the Surrogate nearest to this Parish.
- The Common Licence can only be applied for 3 months prior to the Wedding.
- The Surrogate will confirm the cost.

He/she will require:

1. to have sight of the your passports.
2. a completed Marriage Measure 2008 Form (included in the Appendices at the back of this pack) and the documentary evidence of a Qualifying Connection claimed to marry in St Nicholas Parish, Harpenden.
3. evidence of a current address, such as a utility bill or bank statement.

Please check before your appointment whether any other evidence is required.

Your 'Intention to Marry by Common Licence' is publicly announced at the principle and most well attended Sunday Service of the church in which you intend to marry, on three consecutive Sundays. We can tell you the dates when this will happen and you are warmly invited to come to those services.

MARRIAGE SCHEDULE

Couples unable to marry using banns or Common Licences, will need to visit a civil register office to obtain a marriage schedule.

- You will need to take with you a letter from the minister confirming your eligibility to marry in church, particularly if relying on a 'qualifying connection'.
- It can take 70 days to receive a marriage schedule after the first appointment so you need to plan ahead.
- You must have been resident in the registration district for 7 clear days before your appointment.

APPLICATION FOR AN ARCHBISHOP'S LICENCE OR SPECIAL LICENCE

An Archbishop's or Special Licence is discretionary.

It is very rarely required or granted except in the most exceptional circumstances, usually for a marriage to take place outside of the normal conditions of time, place or location under the law. An example might be: in the event of severe illness.

In the first instance consult with a member of the clergy in this parish and only after such consultation, please apply for an application form for an Archbishop's Licence to:-

The Registrar
1 The Sanctuary
Westminster, London SW1P 3JT
Tel: 0207 2225 381
Direct Dial: 0207 960 7189 Email: stalbans.registry@1thesanctuary.com

- you will need to make another appointment with the clergy person officiating at your wedding ceremony as both you and the clergy person will fill in the form.
- you may be asked to supply other supporting documentation.
- you will have to visit the Faculty Office or as directed to swear an affidavit.
- the Registrar will advise of the cost.
- be aware that the application and granting of this licence takes longer than other licences and Banns.

THE MARRIAGE OF DIVORCED PERSONS IN THE PARISH OF HARPENDEN

If you, or your future husband or wife, have a partner alive from a previous marriage, you have two options for a wedding ceremony in any of the three churches in this Parish.

Option 1: Service of Prayer and Dedication after a Civil Marriage.

This ceremony is commonly known as a 'Blessing'.

It has been offered in the past to couples in your position.

The service can be booked with the Parish Office in the normal way.

There can be hymns and choir as at a wedding ceremony and for many couples this blessing ceremony provides a very helpful way to ask God to bless their marriage.

Option 2: Marriage Service in Church

The Parish of Harpenden is willing to consider remarriage in church in certain circumstances. This requires careful consideration and involves a procedure that may take some time. The clergy will need to meet with you and discuss your desire to be married in church. At various stages they may decide this Option 2 is not appropriate for you. The final decision rests with the clergy person, in consultation with the Bishop.

We do not accept bookings for weddings where these circumstances apply until this process is complete. Please do contact us before you make any firm bookings for your wedding/reception.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION

The Church of England takes the significance of your marriage very seriously. Along with all the other aspects of planning your wedding day, there is a good degree of preparation involved.

You will be asked to attend:

- (i) a Marriage Preparation Session
- (ii) a meeting with the clergy
- (iii) a Wedding Rehearsal.

MARRIAGE PREPARATION SESSIONS

- These meetings cover very important aspects of preparation for your marriage and both of you should attend.
- The usual format is a Saturday morning meeting, for about 2 hours, run by the clergy, and attended by a small number of couples who are getting married about the same time as you.
- The sessions include very free-ranging discussions about all aspects of married life, including both its joys and its challenges.
- You are assured the sessions are entirely and strictly confidential.

MEETING WITH ONE OF THE CLERGY

You may meet the clergy person who is conducting your marriage at the marriage preparation session. If not, you can contact them after that session to arrange a meeting.

During this meeting you will discuss;

- the main principles of Christian marriage.
- the wedding ceremony planning, including choices of hymns and a bible reading and other readings.
- booking a date for the Wedding rehearsal together.

There will be plenty of opportunity to ask questions!

REHEARSAL

- The Rehearsal usually takes place during the week preceding your wedding in the relevant church.
- It is helpful if the Best Man, the Bridesmaid(s) and the Father of the Bride (or whoever is giving the Bride away if you take this option) can be there with you.

- By this time you should also be able to say who your two Witnesses will be, if this information has not already been entered on the booking form at the time of booking your wedding.
- Bring along a copy or two of your Order of Service.

The Rehearsal is a valuable time to practise actions and words of the service and get used to the building.

There will be plenty of time to ask questions!

DIRECTIONS FOR PUTTING TOGETHER THE ORDER OF SERVICE FOR YOUR WEDDING CEREMONY

There is no generic, standard Marriage Service booklet at any of our churches. The great majority of couples choose to organize and print their own personal Order of Service.

Please talk the details through with the clergy person who will be officiating at your wedding ceremony when you meet with them. Later, show/email to her/him or the Parish Office a proof copy before printing. Please allow at least 15 copies for clergy, organist, vergers and choir who will all need copies.

Many parts of the Service are fixed because they are required by law. In order that the marriage is legally binding and lawfully conducted, those parts may not be changed in any way. However there is scope for personal choices with music, readings etc. The service should generally be in this order.

General Order of the Marriage Service

- Music for the entry of the bride
- Hymn
- The Declarations
- Reading(s)
- Address (arrange with the officiant)
- Hymn
- The Marriage
- The Prayers
- The Registration of the Marriage
- Hymn
- The Blessing
- Music

You may like to include this 'Pastoral Introduction' about marriage in your Order of Service. It is designed to be read by those present before the service begins.

'A wedding is one of life's great moments, a time of solemn commitments as well as good wishes, feasting and joy. St John tells us how Jesus shared in such an occasion at Cana, and gave there a sign of new beginnings as he turned water into wine.

Marriage is intended by God to be a creative relationship, as his blessing enables husband and wife to love and support each other in good times and in bad, and to share in the care and upbringing of children. For Christians, marriage is also an invitation to share life together in the spirit of Jesus Christ. It is based upon a solemn, public and life-long covenant between a man and a woman, declared and celebrated in the presence of God and before witnesses.

On this their wedding day the bride and bridegroom face each other; make their promises and receive God's blessing. You are witnesses of the marriage, and express your support by your presence and your prayers. Your support does not end today: the couple will value continued encouragement in the days and years ahead of them.'

SUGGESTED BIBLE READINGS FOR YOUR WEDDING

Two readings are usual and one of them must be from the Bible. You may opt to have one Bible and one or more non-Biblical reading. Here are just a few suggestions. You can choose from many more passages in the Bible.

The clergy person officiating at your Wedding Ceremony will check how many and which readings you would like to have when you meet them.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-9

There is an appointed time for everything.
And there is a time for every event under heaven—
A time to give birth and a time to die;
A time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted.
A time to kill and a time to heal;
A time to tear down and a time to build up. A time to weep and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn and a time to dance. A time to throw stones and a time to gather stones;
A time to embrace and a time to shun embracing.
A time to search and a time to give up as lost;
A time to keep and a time to throw away.
A time to tear apart and a time to sew together;
A time to be silent and a time to speak. A time to love and a time to hate;
A time for war and a time for peace.
For everything there is a time.

Song of Songs 8:6-7

Put me like a seal over your heart,
Like a seal on your arm.
For love is as strong as death,
Jealousy is as severe as Sheol;
Its flashes are flashes of fire,
The very flame of the Lord.
Many waters cannot quench love,
Nor will rivers overflow it;
If a man were to give all the riches of his house for love,
It would be utterly despised.

John 15:9-12

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.
'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

1 Corinthians 13

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

Romans 12:1,9-13,16

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Live in harmony with one another.

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' And Jesus said to her, 'Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' Now standing there were six stone water-jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, 'Fill the jars with water.' And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, 'Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward.' So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, 'Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now.' Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Colossians 3:12-17

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Mark 10:6-9

But from the beginning of creation, "God made them male and female." "For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.'

1 John 4:7-12

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.

MUSIC FOR YOUR WEDDING

Music is an integral part of any wedding service and the music team can advise you on music matters and help you with music choices.

Each of the churches has its own organ and can supply an organist: St Nicholas can provide a choir, if requested, for weddings at any of the three churches.

- St Nicholas – Contact Marie Price, Parish Director of Music, for choirs music@parishofharpenden.org or Chris Muhley, Parish Organist organist@parishofharpenden.org if no choir is required and to discuss organ music choices.
- St Mary's Organist - Contact parish office
- All Saints Organist - Contact parish office.

Please contact the Organist at the appropriate church to discuss the music you would like for your wedding. They will advise you on the type of music that sounds "right" for the particular organ.

YOU SHOULD ADVISE THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC OR ORGANIST OF YOUR FINAL MUSIC AND HYMN CHOICES NO LATER THAN ONE MONTH BEFORE YOUR WEDDING DATE.

Bringing your own organist or musicians?

You are welcome to bring your own organist, but this must be discussed first, well in advance, with the Director of Music. If you choose to bring your own organist, the resident organist must be paid in full, along with any fee incurred from your own organist.

You may know musicians (String Quartet or pianist or other soloist) that you would like to perform at your wedding. This is possible, however the Parish of Harpenden cannot enter into any arrangement you may make with musicians other than through the Director of Music, or organist of St Nicholas, All Saints' or St Mary's churches.

It may be possible for CD's supplied by you to be played at your wedding. Discuss this with the Director of Music and clergy to be sure of suitability and practicality.

CHOIR

St Nicholas can provide a choir if requested, to sing at any of the three churches. This will usually be made up of the choral scholars and older choristers. If you require specific music needing a full choir this may be possible, according to availability. Please note that for weekday weddings the young people are not usually available. Speak to the Director of Music, as early as possible, to discuss your requirements.

WEDDING FLOWERS - General Guidelines

Each of the three churches in the Parish will have fresh flower arrangements ready for Sunday services except in the Advent and Lent periods in the Christian Calendar. There are no flowers in churches for the four Sundays before Christmas (Advent), nor on the six Sundays before Easter (Lent). If you would like special or additional flowers please contact the relevant flower group for the church where your wedding is being held WELL IN ADVANCE BEFORE YOUR WEDDING.

If there is more than one wedding on a particular date, agreement has to be made between the wedding parties as to colour of flowers used: default colour will be white/cream with greenery. You may like to agree to share the expense with the other couple also. If you would like to explore this option, we can endeavour to put you in touch with the other couple so that you can arrange this yourselves.

CAR PARKING

All Saint's and St Mary's Churches each have adjacent car parks. There is no parking at St Nicholas Church or school.

If your service is taking place on a weekday, during term time, we suggest you have a word with the Police and Traffic Wardens, who may be able to reserve some spaces nearby. Otherwise you will have to tell your guests to use the Public Car Parks in the town.

WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY

A few points to make certain that photographing the big day does not in any way spoil it!

- Please ensure your official photographer(s) speak with the clergy, as soon as they arrive before the service starts.
- He or she will advise on the rules about what photography is permissible and when; as well as where to stand for the best shots.
- Extra lighting equipment etc is not permitted.
- Your guests will be asked not to use cameras during the service.
- Do be aware that there may be another wedding within less than an hour of your own. You will have been advised if this applies to you. Please advise your photographer of this as it may have a bearing on the time available to him/her. Please be aware that Vergers usually lock the Main Church Doors about 30 minutes after the end of the ceremony.

CONFETTI

To help keep the churchyard (and also the church) clean, your guests are asked not to throw confetti in the church grounds! A board will be posted to indicate where you may use confetti. Please try to use biodegradable confetti.
